

OLE BEIER SØRENSEN, Ph.D., Senior Partner at Beier Research, Denmark.

Mr. Beier is heading the research and advisory company Beier Research offering analysis and high level advice on pension policy, pension design and pension management. Over the years Mr. Beier has contributed or is contributing to pension reform efforts in very diverse settings across the globe. Before setting up Beier Research in 2017, Mr. Beier worked at the OECD for two years as Senior Private Pensions Expert. Before that he worked for 20+ years as Chief of Strategy and Research and Senior Pension Researcher with the Danish pension giant ATP. Mr. Beier has served as a board member, board chairman of several international organizations in the pensions field. Mr. Beier is an acknowledged contributor to the pensions debate in his own country as well as abroad. His expertise spans among other things public and private pensions, their interaction, implementation as well as management.