

DMITRI V. POMAZKIN, Ph. D., actuary, Chief Expert, Laboratory for pension system development, Institute for Social Policy, HSE
Experience in the field of modeling of social systems for more than 20 years. Author of more than 40 publications. Took part in the development of different demographic models, creating programs for calculations of cash flows PFR, FSS, development of the model of socio-economic consequences of HIV/AIDS etc. Author of the demographic resource www.infoarchive.ru/demography. Professional interests are connected with modelling of mortality, information technology in the field of demography and using the heatmapping for models of socio-dynamic models.